

Bristol Health Partners

Services & Trusts Integrating To improve Care in self-Harm

STITCH

Salena Williams, David Gunnell

Aims of

STITCH

Treatment and care is equitable, fully evidence based and non-stigmatising for all people who self harm and to reduce suicides in Bristol

- Improve service user engagement in service planning and pathway and with research
- Provide a psychosocial assessment following self harm
- Ensure closer inter-organisational and inter-agency working
- Reduce the 'the science to service' gap
- Improve self-harm training

delivery th

achievements

- Finalist Patient Safety Care Awards 2014
- Self-Harm Surveillance Register 2010-
- £500,000 per annum investment in self-harm services in 2014
- Contribution to MHRA's review management of paracetamol

pois

STITCH research plans

- Evaluate the impact of the new investment services on patient
- Develop patient-centred outcomes
- Maximise patient involvement with research
- RCTs of interventions to improve self-harm outcomes

