

Avoidable admissions

Evaluation of a 'care bundles' intervention for patients with COPD

Exploring the role of first aid education for people attending A&E

A tool to examine where an admission has been avoided

Development of a device to detect antibiotic resistance

LONGITUDE PRIZE

Data to inform commissioning

What preventative environmental interventions may reduce the future dependency of the population on health services

Knowledge mobilisation & patient and public involvement

Using the researcher in residence model within the telecommunications industries

Improving the interactions in urgent care: developing training workshops to support knowledge coproduction

Managing risk

Discharge from secondary care into primary care for elderly patients: clinical decision making and risk management

The utility and acceptability of a frailty assessment within primary care

Managing uncertainty to reduce emergency bed days in older patients: evidence synthesis and feasibility testing

General Practitioners and emergency departments

Abnormal test results in out of hours care

